

Must-Have Muffins

Chewy, fluffy, and flavorful, New English Muffins could be the replacement for your morning toast or bagel. The recipe for the muffins was inspired by owner David Vickers's mother, who used to greet David and his brothers after school with homemade English muffins instead of milk and cookies. The Woburn, Massachusetts-based company bakes flavors such as cinnamon raisin, blueberry, cranberry, and plain. Low in sugar and free of preservatives, they taste delicious with a bit of butter and tea. The five-cheese muffins make a great base for mini-pizzas. One dozen assorted or same-flavor 4-ounce size or two dozen assorted or same-flavor 2-ounce size, $34.95 (includes shipping and handling). The New English Muffin Company, 800-505-6836, 781-932-6836. newenglishmuffins.com

