THE EVOLUTION // SANDWICHES

There's something to be said for the portability of the classic ice cream sandwich, two cardboard-like chocolate cookies flanking a bar of vanilla ice cream. But we prefer eating ours with a knife and fork. At Pressed Sandwiches, don't miss the hot, toasted brioche filled with gelato ($4.50). Italian-inspired, perhaps. But we think it's a new American classic. >> Pressed Sandwiches, 736 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, 617-864-9600. —J.B.
